

They are Back!

*SSHAI Proudly Presents a
Scot and Lynn MacGregor Gaited Horse Clinic
Saturday and Sunday
April 8th and 9^h, 2017*

Scot Macgregor grew up the son of a horse trainer who has ridden his entire life. He started riding gaited horses over 40 years ago. They have taught clinics in Europe, Canada and the United States since 1995. Scot is a judge for the NWHA (National Walking Horse Association). They have won over 2,000 times in the last ten years. Many of those wins were by clients on their own horses. He believes a correct gait comes from balance, roundness, and bend.

“Teaching is a privilege we take very seriously.” -Scot MacGregor

Clinic Format:

Each rider will get one-on-one attention, first with Scot and following with solidifying concepts by Lynn. Space is limited and available on a first come first serve basis. Scot and Lynn will work with horse and rider on any problems, issues, or skills they wish to improve. This can include, but is not limited to, ground manners, gait improvement, dressage, behavior issues, establishing gaits, side passing, and teaching trail obstacle maneuvers. This format can be adapted to any experience level.

Schedule:

The sessions will begin at 8 o’ clock Saturday and Sunday and will go until completed.

Cost:

- Two one hour sessions: $150
 - $35 stall for the weekend
 - One session on Saturday and one on Sunday
- Auditors: $10 a day

Location:

The scenic Camp Tapawingo. Indoor and Outdoor arenas and trail riding available. Self-contained camping available (no electric hook-ups) and numerous hotels in near vicinity.
